Baker Quiz Resumes in Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Rules Committee quizzed star witness Don B. Reynolds again in a closed meeting today before opening public hearings in the Bobby Baker case.

Also attending the executive session was Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del., whose charge that $25,000 was funneled from Reynolds through Baker to the Kennedy-Johnson campaign in 1960 kicked off the latest round of the probe.

Sen. B. Everett Jordan, D-N.C., chairman of the Rules Committee, would not say what would be covered in the closed meeting. Earlier it had been announced Reynolds was to be the leadoff witness.

Reynolds has said Baker, a former secretary to the Senate Democrats, and Matthew H. McCloskey, a veteran Democratic fund raiser, were linked in an illegal diversion of $25,000 to the 1960 Kennedy-Johnson campaign fund.

McCloskey, ambassador to Ireland in the Kennedy administration, has denied knowledge of any payoff. Baker, in earlier hearings, invoked his constitutional privilege under the Fifth Amendment to refuse to testify on matters that might incriminate him.

The new round of hearings stems from a speech Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del., made to the Senate Sept. 1. He charged that the alleged payoff came from the government contract a McCloskey corporation held for construction of the Washington, D.C., Stadium.

Quoting Reynolds, Williams said McCloskey paid the silver Spring, Md., insurance man $35,000 too much for a performance bond on the project, with Reynolds to keep $10,000 and the remaining $25,000 of the overpayment to be funneled through Baker into the Kennedy-Johnson fund. Federal law forbids corporations from contributing to political campaigns.

Engineer Killed

Three Wrecks In Minnesota

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A Great Northern engineer was killed Monday night when his switch engine rammed a slow-moving freight in St. Paul. It was one of three accidents in Minnesota involving trains Monday.

Killed was Edward I. Persell, 51, of northeast Minneapolis. A switchman, Richard Lockhart, 25, of Hilltop, was treated at a hospital for cuts and bruises.

The accident happened on GN tracks near Midway Stadium. The switch engine, pulling eight flatcars loaded with truck trailers, rammed the caboose of a Chicago and North Western train heading for the Minneapolis yards.

Leonard Lee, 62, Minneapolis, was riding in the caboose of the C & NW train but was not hurt even though the caboose was bounced over the engine by the impact.

Lockhart said the switch train was moving about 30 miles an hour down an incline when he spotted the other train.

Meanwhile, Northern Pacific crews were expected to have traffic restored some time today at Becker, southeast of St. Cloud, where 32 cars of a 60-car NP freight derailed Monday noon. There were no injuries.

Traffic was being detoured over Great Northern tracks between the Twin Cities and St. Cloud. It was believed a broken wheel or axle on a freight car spilled the cars off the tracks, one of them almost ramming the Becker depot.

In a third accident, Paul M. Bartlett of Stillwater suffered a broken leg when his truck was struck by a Soo Line train at Withrow, in Washington County. It was the second truck-train crash in the county in about 24 hours.

The Baltimore fire was described by Deputy Fire Chief Roland Wett as "very suspicious." The mother, Mrs. Marion Smith, and four children, all sleeping in the basement, survived. Wett said the seven dead were all sleeping on the second floor.

In the Kentucky fire, the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Spencer, saved a 5-week-old son.

Cause of the Kentucky fire was unknown.

Ghana Lawyer New Chief of U.N. Assembly

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Alex Quaison-Sackey of Ghana, slated for election today as president of the U.N. General Assembly, will have two distinctions in the office.

He will be the youngest president and the first African Negro in the post in the 19 years the assembly has been holding annual sessions.

Quaison-Sackey is only 40. The youngest previous president was Paul-Henri Spaak, now foreign minister of Belgium, who was 47 when he presided over the first session in 1946.

Quaison-Sackey has been head of Ghana's U.N. delegation since mid-1959. He is a broad-faced, broad-bodied man of something more than medium height whose ways reflect the two cultures, African and European, that produced him.

He studied at Oxford and read law at Lincoln's Inn in London. His English is good. He wears tailored Western clothes by day, but he sometimes puts on a toga of brightly checked West African kente cloth for Ghanaian receptions at night.

He habitually carries a leather-thonged, brilliantly painted stick, an African symbol of authority. Though not a tribal chief, he is related to tribal chiefs.

His official biographical sketch lists his hobbies as golf, fishing and reading detective stories. But he is also an expert on African drums. He once performed on them at a New York night club.

Quaison-Sackey was born Aug. 9, 1924, in Winneba, 40 miles west of Accra on the Gulf of Guinea. His homeland was then the British colony of the Gold Coast.

After the Gold Coast became independent Ghana on March 6, 1947, he was assigned to the Ghana high commissioner's office in London. He was on Ghana's delegation to the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade in Geneva that same year and remained with the office until 1959, when he was sent to the United Nations. In 1961 he was named a vice president of the General Assembly. He represented Ghana on the Security Council in 1962-63.

He lives with his wife and five children in a commodious house with a large garden in suburban New Rochelle.

South Shivers Temperature Drops To 33 in Florida

N. Y. State Gets Eight Inches of Snow

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Record-shattering cold pierced the Southland today as arctic air held fast in the states east of the Rockies.

The mercury plunged to 33 degrees at the Tampa, Fla., airport breaking the previous record low for Dec. 1 of 34 set in 1957.

Other record minimums for the date were reported at three capitals — Columbus, Ohio, with 7 degrees; Nashville, Tenn., with 17; and Raleigh, N.C. with 15.

Morning low reading were 12 below at Pellston, Mich., and 7 below at Marquette County Airport, Mich. At the same time it was 61 at Key West, Fla.

Scattered snow in the New York State left five inches on the ground at Rochester, three at Syracuse, one at Buffalo and in many parts of the Adirondacks. Temperatures ranged from 3 above at Boonville in the western Adirondack foothills to 22 in New York City.

Florida farmers and citrus growers welcomed a cold wave today that drove temperatures below or near freezing in the northern and central sections of the state. The cold, dry air helped to firm and sweeten oranges, tangerines and grapefruit and to overcome fungus and insect problems that developed during one of the warmest Novembers on record.

There was a hard freeze over the entire state of North Carolina. Mt. Mitchell, the highest point east of the Mississippi River, recorded 6 degrees below zero with about 1½ inches of snow on the ground. Wilmington, in North Carolina's southeastern corner on the ocean, had a low of 25.

In South Carolina there were freezing temperatures over most of the state. Caesars head reported 10 above and Myrtle Beach had 25.

Rain and strong winds whipped the lowland sections of the Northwest and widespread snow fell from the northern Rockies east to New England.

A warming trend was indicated for much of the Midwest. The mercury failed to move much above zero in some parts of the northern Midwest Monday after early-morning readings as low as 31 below zero in Valley City, N.D.

Clear skies covered most of the southern half of the nation. The mercury dropped to 29 in Mobile, Ala., and Shreveport, La., 28 in Jackson, Miss., and 32 in Pensacola, Fla. It was 22 in Atlanta and 15 in Louisville. Miami's low was 54.

This indicated it might not be able to send back scientific in-

Mariner Has 2-Day Lead in Mars Race

By DIAL TORGERSON

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — U.S. spacecraft Mariner 4 sped at 7,226 miles an hour today toward distant Mars — two days ahead of a Soviet rival in history's first interplanetary race.

Mariner is due on the outskirts of Mars July 14. Somewhere behind it — perhaps even in the same trajectory — is the Zond 2 cosmic rocket the Russians fired Monday. Mariner's builders at the Jet Propulsion Laboratory here admit Zond 2 might get there first.

Mariner is cruising now, its speed pre-set, moving in a perfect position for the next crucial stop in its 350-million-mile flight: a midcourse maneuver to refine its trajectory. It probably will come later this week. The midcourse maneuver may increase Mariner's speed slightly, enough to cut a few hours on a 229-day journey.

Soviet scientists, aware of Mariner's schedule, could rig Zond 2 to pass it, if simple speed is their goal, JPL experts said.

Robert J. Parks, JPL's assistant director for lunar and planetary projects, said, "It depends on whether the Soviets are attempting to minimize the flight time or maximize the payload."

The Russians' last attempt to shoot a probe to Mars was in 1962. Its radio failed 3½ months out. It was programmed for a 259-day trip, 30 days more than Mariner's current expedition.

Scientists were inclined to doubt that Soviet scientists fired Zond 2 to pass Mariner 4 as a cold war gambit.

Russ Ship Not Working Well

MOSCOW (AP) — A Soviet space probe has joined America's Mariner 4 on the long road to Mars, but the Russians announced today that their spacecraft is not working properly.

Zond 2 — Zond is Russian for probe — was launched Monday from a heavy satellite circling the earth, an official announcement said. Radio reports showed its power supply "is approximately 50 per cent below the expected," the announcement by Tass, the Soviet news agency, said.

This indicated it might not be able to send back scientific information about Mars even if it succeeds in passing close to the planet.

Similar troubles silenced the last Soviet Mars probe, launched Nov. 1, 1962, while it was still more than six million miles from Mars. Zond 1, another Soviet space effort launched last April 2, apparently failed on an unannounced mission. Scientific observers thought Venus was its target.

The Americans, who have successfully probed Venus, launched Mariner 4 toward Mars on Saturday. It is reported working as planned at the beginning of a 7½-month trip to the reddish planet.

The American and Soviet launchings came close together because the position of the earth and Mars are favorable now for the complicated trajectory needed. Such favorable periods come only every few years.

Zond 2 was launched "in accordance with the program for space explorations," Tass said.

First a multistage rocket went into orbit and then the spacecraft was blasted away on its trip. This blast "imparted to the automatic station a velocity necessary for reaching the trajectory of the movement toward Mars," the announcement said. The same technique is used in launching deep U.S. space probes.

Care Needed to Avoid New High State Road Toll

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Unless they mend their ways hurriedly, Minnesota drivers apparently will chalk up another record of traffic tombstones this year.

The state heads into the final month of the year with the highway toll standing at 761, twenty higher than a year ago. The year-long toll for 1963—a record—was 801.

At the current rate of well over two deaths a day, that record will easily be surpassed.

Latest victims included: George M. Norbye 53, Frazee, killed Monday night when his car and a cattle truck collided in Frazee.

Martha Stoelen, 61, Arlington, killed in a collision near Victoria, in Carver County, Monday.

Linda Norling, 18, Coon Rapids, dead of injuries suffered in a Thanksgiving Day crash in Fridley.

Eva Young, 74, Minneapolis, who died Monday of a Thanksgiving Day collision in south Minneapolis.

Norbye's car collided with a semi-trailer rig driven by Marvin Simonson, 32, of Roseau, who was not hurt. A passenger in the car, Alphonse Stich, 54, Frazee, was hospitalized in Detroit Lakes in serious condition. Officers said the car apparently had just pulled out of a driveway onto Highway 10 when the crash occurred.

Showdown in U.N. May Be Postponed

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The United Nations awaited U.S. reaction today to a Soviet proposal to postpone briefly the showdown in the General Assembly over the Soviet Union's refusal to pay for U.N. peacekeeping operations.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko proposed that the opening meeting of the assembly's 1964 session this afternoon confine itself to routine actions by acclamation. These would include election of Alex Quaison-Sackey of Ghana as president and perhaps of the 13 vice presidents, and the admission of Malawi, Malia and Zambia to U.N. membership. Then the assembly would recess for a day or two to allow more time for negotiations on the financial issue.

This would forestall a formal vote on which the United States could invoke Article 19 of the U.N. Charter. It provides that a U.N. member more than two years in arrears on its dues shall lose its vote in the assembly. The Soviet Union's refusal to pay peacekeeping assessments has put it in that category.

Informed sources doubted the United States would agree to the brief postponement. They said the United States wants a longer deferral of the matter and also a Soviet commitment to negotiate on future peacekeeping arrangements.

Secretary-General U Thant had proposed such a temporary solution providing for the assembly to take up only noncontroversial matters on which there was unanimous agreement until its Christmas recess.

This would permit negotiations until February, when the Christmas recess ends.

Gromyko rejected Thant's proposal Monday, saying the Soviet Union "categorically opposes" postponing important matters on the assembly agenda "for a long period or indefinitely." He said his government "believes the General Assembly should start and continue its work in accordance with normal procedure."

The Soviets have threatened to quit the United Nations if they lose their vote in the assembly. They contend that only the Security Council has the power to start and finance peacekeeping operations and that the peacekeeping assessments for the Congo and Middle East operations are illegal because they were voted by the General Assembly.

Johnson Meets With Taylor

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson met today with his top military and diplomatic advisers, including Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor, to decide whether new steps should be taken to intensify the war against Communist guerrilla forces in South Viet Nam.

The long-debated issue of whether air strikes should be ordered against Communist supply lines through Laos or supply bases in North Viet Nam was reported up for discussion and possible decision.

Taylor, U.S. envoy to Saigon, has been conferring with Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and other policy makers since Thanksgiving and these officials presumably had recommendations ready for the President in advance of the White House session.

For several days, however, administration leaders have been cautioning against speculation that radical changes in U.S. policy were in the offing. The President himself declared at a news conference last Saturday that he did not expect any "dramatic announcement" to follow today's meeting.

Informants said any decisions affecting the conduct of the war undoubtedly would be kept secret until they could be put into action.

Taylor said in advance of his return to Washington last Thursday that air strikes against the Red supply lines, which run from North Viet Nam through the jungles of Laos, and against infiltration bases in North Viet Nam could help overcome the Viet Cong drive for control of South Viet Nam. He cautioned that there were arguments for and against such courses.

Judges Agree To Hatfield's Switch Here

IF looks like Winona can call Judge Arnold Hatfield its own district judge, beginning with the January term of court.

A meeting of Third Judicial District judges Monday in Rochester expressed its approval of district judge-elect Donald T. Franke's desire to have chambers in Rochester, his home. And Judge Hatfield, Wabasha, had already expressed a willingness to move his chambers to Winona.

THE FORMAL vote on shifting of chambers will not be taken until Jan. 4, when Franke is sworn in as judge at Rochester to succeed Judge Leo F. Murphy of Winona. However, the "consensus of opinion" at the Monday meeting favored Hatfield's move to Winona, according to District Judge O. Russell Olson, secretary of the district group.

The practice of Wisconsin lawyers in Third District courts and proposed procedural rules changes also were discussed at the three-hour meeting Monday morning and noon.

The district judges decided to reciprocate the practice of Wisconsin courts in allowing members of the Minnesota bar to try cases in Wisconsin.

Thus, Wisconsin lawyers may appear in Third District courts under these three conditions: First, all pleadings (preliminary papers in a case) by Wisconsin attorneys must be at least co-signed by a Minnesota attorney.

Second, a Minnesota attorney must be present to assist in any case tried by a Wisconsin lawyer. Third, a Wisconsin attorney, at the discretion of the trial judge, may conduct the case he is participating in.

JUDGE OLSON said that the above rules are similar to provisions made in Wisconsin for the practice of Minnesota lawyers. They insure that a client's interests are protected, Olson said.

He pointed out that each state has its own rules of procedure, notably the rules under which evidence will be admitted by the court. A Wisconsin lawyer would not usually be familiar with Minnesota procedures, and vice versa.

Birders to Hear Talk on Banding

An illustrated talk on bird banding and other birding activities by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson, Rochester, Minn., will be one of the features of Wednesday's meeting of the Hiawatha Bird Club of Winona at 7:30 p.m. at Lake Park Lodge.

A second feature will be the decorating of a "birds' Christmas tree" by club members and several Winona Girl Scouts. The decorations will consist of small suet balls, peanut butter cups, pop corn and cranberry strings and other food tidbits enjoyed by our winter resident birds.

The tree, which has been donated by Miss Florence Dickerson, Lake Boulevard, chairman of the club's special projects committee, will be set up in a suitable location by the Park-Recreation Board. Club members and Girl Scout volunteers will keep the tree supplied throughout the winter months.

Bird club President Francis Voelker announced that the annual bird census will be taken in the Winona area Jan. 2, instead of the earlier date previously announced.

2 Colleges Ask Federal Funds For Libraries

Two Winona colleges have applied for almost identical amounts in federal funds to help finance construction of new libraries.

The College of Saint Teresa is asking $460,529 toward a $1,381,587 project, which includes a $1,140,000 library structure and associated projects.

Winona State College, through the State College Board, is asking $466,000 toward a $1,388,000 expansion of Maxwell Library.

Sister M. Camille, president of SAINT TERESA, said that preliminary sketches for the Teresian library — it now does not have a separate library building — have been drawn and it is hoped that construction can begin in the spring or early summer. Additional contributions also would be required.

The library will be built at West Wabasha and Villa streets.

Dr. Nels Minne, president of WINONA STATE COLLEGE, said that the "addition" to Maxwell library, if sufficient funds are secured, will be larger than the present structure.

In 1963 the legislature appropriated $750,000 for an addition which would have financed a portion of the complete plan.

The present $1,388,000 program is for the complete plan. It includes about $100,000 for site acquisition, already accomplished and not a part of the $750,000 state appropriation.

The complete plan provides a building three stories tall, running east toward Johnson and then northward, occupying about a quarter of a block.

The 50,000-square-foot building would be connected at two levels and integrated with present Maxwell facilities, providing principally more reading stations and more free standing stack space.

Work on plans and specifications has been interrupted pending the outcome of the federal application.

IT IS MADE to the Minnesota Higher Education Facilities Commission. Today is the deadline for applying for the federal money for college expansion.

Minnesota's share under the 1963 federal law is $5,019,166. Of the allocation, $3,825,151 is set aside for public and private four year colleges and private junior colleges. The remaining $1.1 million is earmarked for public junior colleges and will not be allocated until spring.

Three Charged With Sales of Strong Beer

Three county bar operators were arraigned today in municipal court on charges of selling strong beer on Sunday.

Two Rollingsome men asked for, and received, continuances to Dec. 11 before they pleaded to the charges. Cyril Schmidt, operator of Schmitz's Bar, and William Klingler, operator of Bill and Betty's Bar, both in Rollingsome, told Judge John D. McGill that they would like time to consult lawyers.

Anthony Schell, operator of Swede's Bar, Stockholm, pleaded not guilty to selling a six-pack of strong beer to a state Liquor Control Commission inspector Sunday; and Judge McGill set trial for Dec. 11 at 10 a.m.

All three men were released without bail on their personal recognizance. All three are long-time county residents. Warrants were served on them late Monday afternoon by Sheriff George Fort.

The alleged offenses occurred Sunday, when it is illegal in Minnesota to sell liquor containing more than 3.2 percent alcohol. Ronald Pearson alleges in a complaint that Schell sold him a six-pack of strong beer at his bar Sunday.

Leonard O. Skoglund, assistant chief of enforcement for the commission, alleges that Schmidt sold him a six-pack of "strong" beer and that Klingler sold him a six-pack of "strong" beer and a half-pint of whisky.

Conviction on the charges could lead to revocation of the bar-owners licenses.

Kiwanis Sponsors Scouting Meeting

The Winona Kiwanis Club will host a "Together We Organize" dinner meeting at 6:30 tonight at the Senior High School Cafeteria to explain the Boy Scout program and how local organizations may sponsor Scouting units.

W. E. Morse, executive director, WIDA, will be chairman of the project for the Kiwanis Club with Rocco Russo, manager, Northwest Co-op Mills, vice chairman. Ten local institutions will be represented.

Ray Arnoldy, chairman, organization and extension committee, Sugar Loaf Boy Scout District, said the meeting would be to interest more organizations to sponsor units and make it possible for more boys to join the program. Only 18 percent of Winona boys are in the program now.

John Hughes, district camping chairman, and a group of local Scouters were present at a wild game dinner and camp promotion meeting at Camp Kahler, Rochester, Monday night.

George Hedrick, region deputy Scout executive, St. Paul, said Gamehaven Council was 25th of 538 councils in the United States in percentage of Scouts attending long-term camps. It had 64 percent of eligible Scouts attending. Sugar Loaf District had 297 Scouts and Explorers from 18 units in camp.

The meeting approved May 21-23 for the annual Whitewater spring camporee set the 1965 camp fee at $16 per week, including insurance, approved a two-week junior leader training camp and approved the use of the camp Hok-Si-La for the Region 10 camp school.

Snow Tempers Cold

Snow moving into the Winona area tempered the cold wave and brought moderating temperatures to the city with a prediction of slightly higher temperatures tonight but a return to colder conditions Wednesday.

Mostly cloudy with occasional light snow tonight and Wednesday is the forecast for Southern Minnesota and Western Wisconsin. A low of 10-15 is forecast for tonight and a high of 15-20 for Wednesday.

ON THURSDAY below normal temperatures (29-33° daytime and 12-18° at night) are seen with precipitation unlikely.

After dropping to a season low of -4 Monday morning, the temperature started a slow climb from 8 at noon Monday to 18 this morning. At noon today the reading was 19.

A year ago today the high was 31 and the low 13. Highest Dec. 1 reading on record was 60 in 1962 and the low for the day was -12 in 1893. Mean for the past 24 hours was 14, contrasted with a normal of 26 for this time of the year.

Snow flurries over much of Minnesota and Wisconsin made driving conditions hazardous with icy spots and reduced visibility due to drifting snow.

Only below reading in the state this morning was -3 at International Falls where it was snowing. Rochester posted extremes of 10 and 6 and La Crosse had a high of 14 and a low of 10. In each place snow was falling today.

DESPITE THE bitter below zero cold on the last day of the month, the November average was nearly four degrees higher than normal, mostly due to the high 60 and 70 readings at the start of the month.

Mean for the month was 38.56 as contrasted with the normal November figure of 35.1 and last year's 41.53.

High for the month was 76 on Nov. 3 and the low, of course, -4 on the 30th. A total of four and one-half inches of snow fell during the month but only an inch and a half remained at the close. Precipitation, including both rain and snow, fell on 11 days and totaled 1.54. Normal for the month is 1.61 and last year's was only .47. Although the fall was near normal the total for the year still was nearly 10 inches under normal. For the 11 months of 1964 precipitation had reached 20.35 with normal for the year 29.96.

IN FIGURING November degree days, the difference between the mean and 65 and a figure used by fuel dealers and others to measure the cold, a total of 793 was recorded for the month. The figure last year was 704. Normal for the month is 873.

The Weather Bureau's 30-day forecast, issued today, predicted colder than usual weather for this area for December.

Temperatures are expected to average near seasonal normal in the extreme western Dakotas but go below normal in the remainder of the area.

Precipitation will be above normal over the northern half of the region — in North Dakota, northern South Dakota, northern and central Minnesota and northern Wisconsin. Near normal amounts are expected elsewhere.

Climbing temperatures and falling snow greeted the arrival of December in WISCONSIN today.

The snowfall began in the northwestern section of the state and was due to spread through the southeast later today, bringing accumulations of 1 to 3 inches.

Despite the upward trend, temperatures still were well below normal for the season. A low of 1 above zero was recorded early today in the Superior-Duluth area and at Park Falls. Wausau reported 6, Eau Claire and Milwaukee, La Crosse and Racine 10, Madison 12, Lone Rock 13 and Beloit 15.

Beloit reached a high of 21 Monday, with other maximums ranging down to 4 above zero at Superior.

Light snow was falling at mid-morning today at Superior, Eau Claire, Ashland, Hurley and Green Bay.

Snow and snow flurries are in the Wisconsin outlook through Thursday.

PELLSTON, Mich. set the national low of 12 below zero early today, compared with the high Monday of 89 at Miramar, Calif.

Greater Flood Protection Area Check Starts

Appraisals now are being made of additional land proposed for inclusion in the city's flood control system.

Ald. Jim Mohan said today that John Steffen and Clarence Gehrke, specialists in the field, have been hired. The appraisers started Monday.

Land evaluations in the Shive Road area are to be submitted to the Army Corps of Engineers. The values arrived at will help determine whether to position a new levee farther east than originally planned.

At present, the dike is scheduled for a site about 1,500 feet east of Markato Avenue dike road. The City Planning Commission and council have asked that plans be amended, placing the dike on the old Chicago Great Western right of way. This would expand the protected area by about 500 acres.

Comparative appraisals will be made, giving the land's present value and its potential value if brought into the flood control area. The appraisers will make pictures, profiles and comparisons with similar areas in other cities. Work will be finished by next week.

Dakota Student Held for Having Stolen Player

MERIDIAN, Miss. (AP) — A college student from Dakota, Minn., is one of three civil rights workers held on charges resulting from several burglaries.

He is Joseph M. Morse, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marius Morse. Joseph was a student at St. Mary's College in Winona, Minn., until joining the civil rights movement in Mississippi last June.

He was held under $1,500 bond on charges of having a stolen record player in his possession. (His parents told a newsman that Morse was one of eight persons arrested last Friday. All were associated with COFO — the Congress of Federated Organizations of civil rights groups. The parents said the suspects' story was that the record player was a gift from the family of one of them.)

Also held were Sandra Watts of Lakeview, Ore., and Vincent Cummskey, 18, of New York City. Cummskey was charged with burglary. Miss Watts with being an accessory.

Wabasha Co. Crash

WABASHA, Minn. (Special) — No one was injured but there was $100 damage to a school bus and $300 to a car when their left fronts collided on an icy curve a mile northeast of Hammond Monday at 4:30 p.m. Charles F. Kelley was transporting five students from Hammond School 2374 on Wabasha County Road 6 when he met Harold Bringold, 53, West Concord. Deputies Everett Lorenz and Robert Loecherer said both vehicles were practically in the center of the road just prior to the accident.

Truck Skids Into Train at Lake City

LAKE CITY, Minn. (Special) — A rural Lake Cityman escaped injury this morning when his empty cattle truck skidded into a Milwaukee Road passenger train.

Edwin Bremer was proceeding west at the Monroe Street crossing when No. 1, the Pioneer Limited, approached from up river. He applied his brakes and hit a diesel on its side. The impact threw his vehicle around so it stood parallel to the track. Clyde Oliver, assistant chief of police, estimated damage to Bremer's truck at about $700. He said damage to the diesel, which the truck hit head-on, was only slight. The impact held up the train about 15 minutes. Time of the accident was 8:37 a.m.

Ex-Winona Man Admits Car Theft

A former Winona man has pleaded guilty in a Washington state federal court to transporting a car stolen in Winona across state lines.

Wayne Richer, 23, pleaded guilty to the charge Monday at a hearing in U.S. District Court and will await sentencing while an investigation is conducted. Richer suffers from acute diabetes, authorities said. The car, a 1964 model, was stolen from the lot at Quality Chevrolet Co., 105 Johnson St., the night of Nov. 10. It was recovered, along with its driver, Richer, by the Island County sheriff at Coupeville, Wash., the following weekend.

City police turned the case over to the FBI for prosecution. The car has been sold in Washington through Quality Chevrolet's leasing agent. It belonged to L. William Bailey, 510 W. Broadway, a salesman at the dealership.

Transporting a stolen auto across state lines carries up to a 5-year prison sentence as penalty.

Richer was raised in Winona but had not lived here, except for brief periods, since his marriage to a New Mexico girl three years ago. He was on probation for an offense in Oklahoma at the time of the car theft, authorities said.

Burned La Crescent Boy Trying to Learn To Write Left-Handed

LA CRESCENT, Minn. (Special) — Billy Kistler, 7-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kistler, La Crescent, who received burns over 40 percent of his body Sept. 15, still is a patient at St. Francis Hospital, La Crosse, where he is undergoing skin grafting.

He is learning to write with his left hand because he can no longer use the right hand for this purpose — the thumb was burned beyond saving. Able to walk around his room occasionally, he is being tutored through the La Crescent public school.

GIRL HOSPITALIZED Bonnie Overberg, 15, 366 W. Mark St., was admitted to Community Memorial Hospital today for observation after hurting herself in a gym class at Winona Senior High School. Her doctor said that he was unable to discover any injury but that the girl would be kept in the hospital for further examination.

Houston Fire Loss Placed at $60,000

HOUSTON, Minn. (Special) — Sigurd Vathing, whose combination hardware, appliance and implement store and contents were almost totally destroyed by fire Monday, estimated his loss this morning at about $60,000.

He said he had complete insurance coverage.

VATHING SAID he may reopen his business on a smaller scale in another location.

When smoke began coming up through the registers about 10:30 a.m. Monday, Vathing attempted to set off the siren, but it was frozen soundless. So he went out the back door to the fire station around the corner, took the fire truck out, sounded the siren on it, and pulled it up in front of his building.

Hokah and Rushford fire departments also were called and helped fight the blaze until nearby buildings were out of danger. Houston firemen stayed at the scene all night.

Vathing was pushed back by smoke from entering front and back doors to get his records but with the help of other businessmen, soon there to help, broke a window in back and succeeded in saving them from his office.

All other merchandise went, including a large display for Christmas, except a few used appliances stored in the brick portion of the building at one end and the Ideal farm machinery to the rear of the store.

TANKS OF bottle gas stored on a platform at the rear of the store were quickly moved by helpers so they wouldn't explode and add to the holocaust.

The original part of the building was constructed in the late 1880s by A. P. Johnson. During 1902-03, Sigurd's father, Solvie Vathing, occupied it. He moved to another location, then returned to this location. For a time the business was known as Vathing & Lee and later, Vathing & Son when Sigurd went into business with him.

This morning merchandise was moved back into Harold's TV Shop, owned by Mrs. Irma Forsythe, and the Legion Club next door.

Words of Wisdom By Mrs. H.H.H.

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Vice President-elect Hubert H. Humphrey's references to his wife Muriel's words of wisdom will appeal to all women at the Americana he good-humoredly quoted some advice of hers that should be sent to all public speakers.

"Darling," Mrs. Humphrey had told him, "remember, your speeches don't have to be eternal to be immortal."

"A Vice President," he then said, "is supposed to be sometimes seen and seldom heard."

Cambodian Blow At Viet Nam Forces Charged

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — The South Vietnamese Defense Ministry charged today that Cambodian troops and gunboats supported Viet Cong guerrillas in two attacks Monday on Vietnamese units near the Cambodian border.

A patrol moving within 100 yards of the border in Chau Doc Province was hit by Communist guerrillas supported by 100 Cambodian soldiers, the ministry charged.

Mortar fire zeroed in on the government patrol from across the border, killing three men and wounding one, the ministry said. The Viet Cong and Cambodians withdrew after 20 minutes when Vietnamese reinforcements arrived, the ministry added.

Two hours later, four Cambodian patrol boats moved up a canal and blasted an outpost in the area killing one Vietnamese soldier, the ministry said.

In Phnom Penh, the Cambodian capital, the Cambodian chief of state, Prince Norodom Sihanouk, said the talks his government will open Dec. 7 in New Delhi, India, with the United States would deal essentially with the halting of "aggression" against Cambodia from South Viet Nam.

Sihanouk said the question of Cambodia's frontiers and re-assumption of American aid to Cambodia would not be discussed. He added that even if the talks yield positive results, Cambodia will break relations with the United States immediately if it is attacked again.

It was the American Jewish Committee dinner honoring Atty. Arnold M. Grant, Senator Pierre Salinger, the toastmaster, made it the occasion to toss his hat back into the ring, saying, "I'll go back to California and try again."

Salinger said, "who else can say he is 39 years old and a former U.S. Senator?" and Newton N. Minow kidded, "Don't worry, Pierre — it's only 26 years till Medicare."

Beautiful Bess Myerson of TV (Mrs. Arnold M. Grant in private life), in her high heels towered over even most men at the dinner. Bess was doing a little jocular politicking for pretty dr. Barbara, 17. Bess said to Producer Mervyn LeRoy, "Barbara says, 'if your friends won't discover you for the movies, who will?'"

LeRoy said he'd signed Honor Blackman ("Pussy Galore" of "Goldfinger") for his next film, "Moment for Moment."

FINANCIER IRVING Gelst says his gal was an hour late for their luncheon date at the Colony. "You see," she finally explained, "there was a man following me, and he was walking very slow."

He demonstrated a new talent at the Circus Saints & Sinners—to move people oratorically. In a masterful speech thanking them for letting him be their Fall Guy ... winding up singing "God Bless America" ... he had a stag audience close to tears. He took some kidding first (little Jerry Bergen was introduced as Sammy's rabbi "Adam Clayton Pincus"). But I kept thinking, Sammy could be a Senator with one arm tied behind his back.

Zero Goose Hunting

These two geese, probably from the giant Canadian flock that winters annually in Silver Lake at Rochester, were bagged by two Winona cold weather goose hunters in the Winona pool during the weekend. The geese, following more or less a regular pattern of flight, came into range and that was that.

The two hunters, Addison R. Ehlers, 315 Olmstead St., in dark sweater, and Dennis Fletcher, 576 W. King St., are of that little group that continues to hunt geese after the close of the duck season. The goose season runs through Dec. 11 in Minnesota and Dec. 18 in Wisconsin.

Their efforts are centered on the travel of a small number of these big geese between the Big River and Rochester. The geese come to the river in the morning and return in the evening. A year ago these geese were hunted quite extensively in cornfields around Altura and Minneka where they settled down to feed en route.

They are large birds. The one Ehlers is holding weighed 11 pounds eight ounces. The other gander was slightly smaller. This species is one of the largest of the American geese.

Since the freezeup of the sloughs and river, some hunters move over the ice into the area of the sloughs where there is open water. Flush the big geese, and bag them as they rise.

Incidentally, there are a good number of mallards wintering in the open water or seepage area below the Whitman Dam on the Wisconsin side of the river. The water in the ditches does not freeze. There is a strong current.

Highway Deer Kill

Deer kill on highways does not end with the hunting season and game authorities and deer hunters are concerned. In Buffalo County, Wisconsin, for example, the average car deer kill runs about three a week. A number nearly equal to that is killed on the highways of Houston and Winona counties.

One of the high deer hazard areas in Minnesota is the North Shore along Highway 61, where the annual deer kill by cars is one to the mile. The Lutsen Businessmen's Association that has tried many methods to keep the animals off the highway, including reflectors, offers the following suggestions to reduce the slaughter:

- (1) When deer are sighted near the highway, slow down enough to make a safe emergency stop if necessary.
- (2) If one deer crosses the road in front of your car, other deer may be following behind the leader and these will probably dash out onto the road without looking.
- (3) Signs, saying "Deer Crossing Area" indicate that deer may be encountered on the road anywhere within several miles.

(4) Traffic hazard from deer is highest during winter months, particularly after dark when the driver's vision is reduced and deer may become confused by headlights.

WASHINGTON (AP) — An aide said Monday that Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., feels all Americans should have an opportunity to see the government-owned memorial film on the John F. Kennedy administration.

The film, prepared by the United States Information Agency for showing abroad, is entitled "John F. Kennedy: Years of Lightning, Day of Drums." It covers Kennedy's administration from the day of his inauguration till the day of the drums — the day on which he was buried.

The Humphrey aide said the vice president — elect is taking no part in a congressional move to adopt a resolution urging distribution of the film for domestic showing.

"But he said he would like to see such a distribution made," the aide said.

Sen. George S. McGovern, D-S.D., said today he is drafting a resolution to declare it is "the sense of the congress" that the USIA should make the film available to audiences at home through educational and commercial media.

The Senate adopted a similar resolution by Sen. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., in 1962 regarding the USIA film of a visit by Kennedy to India and Pakistan. It was not acted on by the house but the film was distributed domestically on the strength of the senate action.

The USIA has no authority to provide its films for domestic showings since its appropriations are voted solely by activities abroad.

McGovern said today he anticipated passage of his resolution by both houses early in the new congress.

Beatles Back on Hit Parade Peak

LONDON (AP) — The Beatles swept back to the top of the British hit parade today just as drummer Ringo Starr was about to lose his tonsils.

The quartet's recording of "I Feel Fine" went straight to the top of British record sales only three days after being released. It is their first new issue in three months.

Ringo, who is to have his tonsils removed in London's University Hospital Wednesday, expressed no concern. "In the words of the song," he said, "I feel fine."

(4) Traffic hazard from deer is highest during winter months, particularly after dark when the driver's vision is reduced and deer may become confused by headlights.

English Used In Church at Worthington

WORTHINGTON, Minn. (AP) — St. Mary's Catholic Church here has been using an English translation of the Mass since April 12.

The Worthington church is believed the first in the nation to have used English in a Roman Catholic Mass.

The change was authorized by the Vatican's Ecumenical Council last Dec. 4. Last spring the American bishops met in Washington, D.C., agreed upon an English translation and set the first Sunday in Advent for the change.

However, Bishop Edward A. Fitzgerald of the Winona Diocese saw no reason to wait and he told St. Mary's Church it could go ahead. The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Stanley Hale put the practice in effect April 12, and it has continued since in St. Mary's.

St. Mary's has pioneered in other spheres too. It has been using laymen to read scriptures and for other church functions for as long as five years. For many years St. Mary's has included three hymns, sung by the congregation, as part of the Mass.

Many of St. Mary's parishioners are of German descent, and congregational singing of hymns is a common practice in the Catholic churches of Germany. It has not been prohibited in any Catholic church, but has not been done frequently.

Former Mondovi Man Sentenced

ALMA, Wis. (Special) — A former Mondovi resident was sentenced to a year in the Green Bay state reformatory by Buffalo County Judge Gary B. Schlossstein Monday for breaking probation.

David Smith, about 25, had been placed on probation in 1962 for nonsupport of his wife. He was permitted to go to Minneapolis to work, but was apprehended Nov. 16 by Wisconsin authorities when the Minnesota Division of Corrections reported he had been uncooperative and had disappeared.

Represented by Attorney Edwin Larkin, Mondovi, Smith said on the witness stand he had quarreled with his wife and had gone to Eau Claire, where he stayed five days. Testimony showed that he had been divorced and remarried in May

New Carrier Draws Praise

NEWPORT NEWS, Va. (AP) — The nation's newest aircraft carrier, the USS America, heads seaward today for her preliminary acceptance trials.

The America drew rave reviews for her performance on her builder's trials, completed Nov. 20.

Said Capt. Lawrence Heyworth, prospective commanding officer of the ship: "I am fully confident that she is the best performing carrier built to date. She handles amazingly well with the precision of a small ship."

The America was christened last February. She is scheduled to be delivered Dec. 31 and commissioned Jan. 7.

Uncertainties at Home, Abroad

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — This is the month that should allay a lot of doubts — or confirm them. October and November have piled up uncertainties at home and abroad and many are still so clouded they could offer further surprises. In December they should come under a stronger and more revealing light.

The economy has been given a setback by the auto strikes. December should spell out how much of a setback, or how temporary a one. Even more basic is the question hanging fire as to how the new car models will sell. They haven't had a convincing chance yet.

The industry still has to prove it can pull off an unprecedented fourth straight year of high sales. And how the auto industry goes has a big effect on how the rest of the economy goes in its try also for an unprecedented fourth year of peacetime upswing.

This is the month that the steel unions may spell out their demands for wage and fringe benefit increases. And the public may get a better idea of how much this will cost, of the likelihood of the companies going along with the demands, of the chances of a general boost in steel prices.

Many economists have tagged this cliffhanger in steel as the important one in the question of whether another round of inflation can be expected sometime in 1965.

In December the administration hammers out the federal budget that affects everyone. It won't be presented to Congress until January. But in December the nation usually gets a pretty good idea of how high government spending will be — and which industries will gain, which suffer.

And before the month is over it should be clearer too what will be done about taxes — what ones may be cut, what ones might rise. From all this will come an idea of how much of a Treasury deficit lies ahead — that there will be one is sure. How much of one tells how big a boost government will be giving the economy next year.

Whether interest rates will work higher in coming weeks may also be clearer before New Year's Eve. And what effect this will have on business is still debated despite the government assurances that the effect will be minor.

The confusion is increased just now by the uncertainties growing out of the crisis in the British pound sterling, the continuing imbalance of the British economy that brought on the crisis, and the moves to protect the pound — and also the dollar — from renewed raids by speculators.

One thing most people are counting on is that the American consumer will brush all this aside and spend with confidence if not abandon this month. The biggest December retail sales ever are widely expected — some estimating they will top last year's by 6 percent.

And the month also seems sure to bring in a golden flow of year-end dividends by corporations enjoying a record profit year. Many brokers are sure this will spark the usual year-end rally in stock prices.

If all these uncertainties are resolved pleasantly this month, Americans will have plenty to celebrate as 1965 starts.

Cubans Begin Harvest Early

HAVANA, Cuba (AP) — The Castro regime began harvesting Cuba's 1965 sugar cane crop today, a month earlier than usual, hoping to finish before the spring rains.

Cuban officials are optimistic that the 1965 crop will amount to 5 million tons or more. Sugar production, which pays for most of the country's imports, dropped from 6.8 million tons in 1961 to 3.75 million in 1964, the lowest ever.

China Releases British Sailors

HONG KONG (AP) — The Chinese Communists released today a British naval officer and eight British sailors whose cutter strayed into Chinese waters during a camping trip.

A navy spokesman announced the nine men had been well treated and were in good health. Their 32-foot boat also was returned.

This Dime Always Comes Up Tails

WASHINGTON (AP) — A dime which can only come up "tails" every time probably was made by putting two coins together, a mint official said Monday.

Two bartenders said in Philadelphia last week that they found such a two-tail coin and that the Philadelphia mint had certified it as a genuine U.S. coin.

The mint official, Frederick W. Tate, said, "We get these trick coins from time to time. It is possible to change dates and mint marks so that only an expert could tell a change had been made."

"When two coins are put together they test out as genuine as far as the metal is concerned. It would be almost impossible for a coin to be minted with tails on both sides."

He said the mint had not certified the coin found by the two Philadelphia men, Joseph

Malaysia Sinks Indonesian Boat

SINGAPORE (AP) — A Malaysian navy patrol boat shot and sank a motorized sampan carrying nine heavily armed Indonesians early today, a navy spokesman reported.

He said one Indonesian was killed and his body recovered. Three others, including one seriously wounded, were taken prisoner. The other five were presumed drowned.

Roof Garden of Marijuana Seized

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Narcotics agents said they watched while Phillip Weinschenker, 20, cultivated his roof garden. Then they confiscated his marijuana farm and placed him under arrest.

Weinschenker pleaded guilty to setting out 395 marijuana plants in baskets on the roof of his utility room. He was fined $1,000 and placed on three years' probation in Criminal Court Monday.

Ahearn and William Ryan. He said the only person contacted in the mint by Ryan and Ahearn was a young cashier.

Income Tax School Fund Balance Seen

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — State Treasurer Val Bjornson said Monday that there are good prospects that the income tax school fund will be in the black at the close of the fiscal year on June 30, 1965.

His statement, in a talk to the delegate assembly of the Minnesota School Boards Association, continued his debate with Gov. Karl Rolvaag over the state's financial situation.

The governor ordered a 5 per cent cutback in general state spending and a 4 1/2 per cent cut in school aids. He said this was necessary because money was not coming in to provide in full for spending authorized by the 1963 legislature.

Bjornson said the state had been moving steadily toward a situation in which the income tax school fund and the general revenue fund are lumped together in consideration of needs to be met.

While he said he believes the income tax school fund will be "within shooting distance," of coming out in the black at the end of the biennium, the treasurer said meeting rising school needs will be a major problem for the 1965 legislature.

New Operation For Ed Murrow

NEW YORK (AP) — Edward R. Murrow, the news broadcaster who has had one lung removed because of cancer, has undergone surgery again, it was learned Monday.

A spokesman at New York Hospital, when asked about the former U.S. Information Agency director's condition, said:

"The last report was last Friday that Mr. Murrow had undergone surgery a week ago and was doing nicely."

The spokesman said he did not know the nature of the most recent surgery.

Murrow, 56, entered the hospital Nov. 2 for a checkup. He underwent lung surgery in October 1963.

Board Wants to Paddle Students

CHESTER, Pa. (AP) — The Chester Township School Board is seeking the permission of parents to paddle pupils for disobedience.

Robert F. Russell, acting president of the board, said Monday the board will send notices to parents this week requesting their consent. When consent is not granted, he said, pupils who are disciplinary problems will be expelled.

The action was taken after a Chester teacher, Constance Brown, appeared in court Saturday on a charge of assault and battery.

She was accused of spanking a fifth-grade pupil with a yardstick. The hearing was continued until Dec. 26.

having lost four fingers in an industrial accident.

The suit was filed against two companies connected with manufacture of a machine that broke while Kollar was using it.

DEAR ABBY:

News About Cat-Lovers

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I received a clipping from your column in this morning's mail. It was about a neighbor who had a houseful of cats. The house smelled to high heaven, there were cat hairs all over the furniture and the place was filthy, and for that reason nobody wanted to visit her.

Well, I must be that person because I do have a houseful of cats, but I would like to say something.

Half of these cats are not mine! It seems that when anyone in this town wants to get rid of a cat, or some new-born kittens, they drop them off in my yard because they know I love cats and I will give them a good home. I called the Humane Society once to come and pick up some cats that weren't mine. They came out, but were unable to catch them. Now, if you can tell me how to get rid of the cats that are not mine, I will be glad to do so. I will not destroy them. CAT LOVER IN PHOENIX

ABBY

DEAR ABBY: There are worse people than cat-lovers, you know. I am referring to people who tear something out of a newspaper and mail it to someone without signing their name.

Someone mailed me your column. In it was a letter about a neighbor who lived alone except for a houseful of cats. They said the house stank, the furniture was filthy, there were cat hairs all over the place and that was the reason nobody ever wanted to visit the woman. They went on to say that the woman herself was a very nice person and they didn't want to hurt her feeling by telling her. Well, Abby, in the first place, I do not have a "houseful" of cats. I have only 16. In the second place, if I wanted company I would invite them. I do not miss people. My cats are better friends to me than any of my neighbors. LOVES CATS IN CHARLOTTE, N.C.

DEAR ABBY: Somebody wanted to be sure I didn't miss that letter in your column about the lady who kept a lot of cats, so they tore it out of the Chicago American and mailed it to me. I wasn't fooled for a minute. I know who sent it. She's a neighbor of mine who loves birds. Tell her to sweep her own doorstep first. At least my cats know what a sandbox is for. She lets her birds out of their cages and they fly all over her house! Then she burns incense to cover up the odor. Whew!

TO THE BIRD LADY FROM THE CAT LADY

DEAR ABBY: Please put this in your column for the neighbor who complained about my cats, but didn't want to "hurt my feelings." My house is as clean as any house in this neighborhood, and my cats do not smell!

Of all the house pets, the cats is by far the cleanest. If my neighbors were as clean as my cats, I'd be satisfied. If you think you can get me to move, you are sadly mistaken. I was here first, and if you don't like having me for a neighbor, YOU can move!

MINDING MY OWN BUSINESS IN MADISON

DEAR ABBY: I read about that woman who collected cats and the neighbors complained. She sounds like my mother. Did that letter come from Victoria, Texas?

WILLIE MAE IN CLEVELAND

DEAR WILLIE MAE. No. It came from Baltimore, Maryland.

DEAR ABBY: Four years ago my uncle became a priest. Since then I have wondered what is the proper way to address him. Should I call him "Uncle" or "Father"?

PATRICK S.

DEAR PATRICK: Ask him.

Tax Support For Church Colleges Hit

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP) — A lawyer for a group challenging tax support of four church-connected colleges in Maryland said Monday the decision in the case "will affect the future of public education in this country."

Leo Pfeffer, lawyer for the Horace Mann League, said if state grants to the colleges are upheld, "there will be a grave threat to the continuance of the American system of public education."

In opening statements in Anne Arundel County Circuit Court, Pfeffer and Maryland Atty. Gen. Thomas B. Finan both stressed the national significance of the case.

"This is a case which involves every private institution of higher education in this nation," Finan said.

Brought against the State of Maryland and four colleges, the suit attacks bond issues totaling $2.5 million. These would help finance facilities at Western Maryland College in Westminster, St. Joseph's College in Emmitsburg, Hood College in Frederick and the College of Notre Dame of Maryland in Baltimore.

If upheld by the courts, the suit could result in outlawing all tax aid including fellowships, research grants, construction funds and a host of related programs in church-connected colleges.

The suit, filed by four Maryland residents and a nonprofit organization, contends the bond issues are in violation of the First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution, which prohibits the establishment of a state religion.

The state and the colleges involved argue that a church connection does not disqualify the institutions from government aid when it can be shown that the aid is directed at secular purposes.

Western Maryland College is affiliated with the Methodist Church; Hood College has connections with the United Church of Christ and both Notre Dame and St. Joseph's are run by orders of Catholic nuns.

Thanksgiving Road Deaths Set New Mark

CHICAGO (AP) — The nation's 554 traffic deaths during weekend was a record for the 102-hour holiday period.

The previous high since The Associated Press started counting traffic fatalities for the four-day holiday in 1959 was 543 last year.

This year's total averaged 130 deaths a day compared to an average of 126 daily during the first nine months of 1964. For comparative purposes The AP made a survey for a 102-hour non-holiday weekend and counted 468 traffic deaths.

The all-time traffic death toll for any 102-hour holiday period is 706, set in Christmas 1956.

Cold Fails to Frighten Bow, Arrow Hunters

BRainerd, Minn. (AP) — Cold weather over the weekend failed to chill the zeal of Minnesota bow and arrow deer hunters.

A total of 964 archers turned out Saturday to hunt the Camp Ripley reservation where weekend hunting is permitted. The turnout Sunday when temperatures were around the zero mark totaled 485 bowmen.

Thirty-three deer were bagged Saturday and 14 on Sunday. One party of six Brainerd archers brought home four deer, all bagged Saturday. The successful hunters were Ron, Ray and Les Briton, and Joe Dobson.

Some of the hardier hunters camped on the reservation Saturday night. One group had to seek refuge, however, when their tent caught fire and was destroyed.

Udall Expects 3 Water Projects

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall said Monday he expects the administration to ask Congress next year to authorize three large water projects: Garrison diversion in North Dakota, Auburn-Polsom in California and the five-state Pacific Southwest regional project.

Although the secretary did not estimate their cost, the Reclamation Bureau later put it at more than $2.2 billion — $213 million for Garrison, $411 million for Auburn-Polsom and $1,686,000,000 for the Pacific Southwest plan.

Cousin Visits The Johnsons

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's cousin Orville Bailey, who lives near his LBJ Ranch in Johnson City, Tex., is visiting the White House. He flew here with Johnson Sunday night on what White House press secretary George Brady called "a purely private, personal visit."

Young Turks In House Ask GOP Caucus

WASHINGTON (AP) — Much phone calling, letter writing and huddling is going on among younger House Republicans. The subject: Can they and should they try to change the image of their party's congressional leadership?

The latest bubble to surface from this inner ferment is a call by a group of so-called "Young Turk" Republicans for a party caucus in mid-December.

House Republican Leader Charles A. Halleck of Indiana had set the meeting for the morning of Jan. 4, the day Congress reopens. This presumably would leave time for only the usual routine party matters, not for a major discussion of party policy.

Halleck is the main projector in the House of the "Old Guard" image which some younger Republicans object to and want to change.

Halleck, vacationing in the South, doesn't appear to be worried. He relayed word through a spokesman Monday that "if the members want to meet earlier, it's all right with me."

Pushing the December meeting is a group led by Reps. Charles E. Goodell of New York and Robert P. Griffin of Michigan. This is the same group that staged a minor revolt against Halleck's wishes two years ago.

At that time they slipped Rep. Gerald R. Ford of Michigan onto the House leadership ladder by ousting an Old Guardsman, Rep. Charles B. Hoeven of Iowa, from the chairmanship of the caucus.

Ford, 49, a trim and personable former football star, regards himself as about as conservative as Halleck politically. But some of the "Young Turks" believe he might furnish the new image they desire.

OUT-OF-TOWN COLLEGES

Gets Master Degree

A Winona received her master of science degree in education last week in commencement exercises at Iowa State University, Ames.

She is MISS JOAN A. INGRAM, daughter of Mrs. Bernice W. Ingram, 374 Center St. The fall graduation ceremonies came at the end of the university's fall quarter.

DAVID F. HOLDEN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harlen Holden, 323 W. Sanborn St., has been selected for listing in the 1964-65 edition of "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges," a book published by "Who's Who in America."

Holden, a senior at Hamline University, St. Paul, was one of 13 Hamline students chosen for inclusion in the book. He is a psychology and English major at the university, and he works as a departmental assistant in psychology.

A Winona girl, a sophomore at Macalester College, St. Paul, is a member of the college band, which will present concerts Dec. 11 and 13. She is MISS SUSAN BUSCHICKER, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger H. Buschick, 318 Grand St.

MISS ALBERTA M. FISCHER, a junior at Augsburg College, Minneapolis, was recently awarded full membership in Timpia Society, an organization for juniors and seniors who have a cumulative honor point average of 2.5 and have had at least one semester at Augsburg.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Fischer, 359 W. Bellevue St., she is majoring in sociology at Augsburg.

ALMA, Wis. — Miss Carmian Boyd, a junior in the school of nursing at the University of Wisconsin, has pledged Alpha Tau Delta sorority, a student nurses' group, and has been elected as its vice president. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Boyd.

CALEDONIA, Minn. (Special) — Miss Anita Larson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

Harlie Larson and a sophomore at Luther College, Decorah, Iowa, will be a soprano soloist in the college's performance of Handel's "The Messiah" Dec. 12 and 13.

Miss Monica Miss Larson Griffin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Griffin, New Albin, Iowa, and a senior in medical technology at Viterbo College and St. Francis School of Medical Technology, both of La Crosse, will be included in the 1964-65 edition of "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges." Selections for inclusion were made on the basis of participation in and leadership of academic co-curricular activities.

WABASHA, Minn. — A Wabasha student at Luther College was also named to "Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges." He is John Boole, son of Mr. and Mrs. K. A. Boole, who is attending Luther on a scholarship. He is on the staff of the college's news magazine and its new literary magazine.

Juveniles Admit Pepin Break-ins

PEPIN, Wis. (Special) — Four juveniles, two 11 years old and the others 9 and 12, have been questioned by Robert Brandtner, village marshal and Pepin County deputy sheriff, regarding two break-ins reported to the sheriff's office at Durand Saturday.

Harley Varnum told the sheriff's office that a lock was pried off his fishing shack near Lake Pepin. A 12 gauge shotgun was missing, plus a supply of shells and about five pounds of lead used on fishing nets.

Pepin Lumber & Warehouse reported five small rolls of roofing paper, a sack of cement and an amount of plywood taken from its warehouse.

Brandtner said most of the articles have been recovered. Also recovered was a small hand axe which one of the boys admitted had been taken from the Farmers Union in an earlier break-in, Brandtner said. Investigation is continuing.

Taylor's Oldest 96 on Thursday

TAYLOR, Wis. (Special) — Taylor's oldest citizen and believed to be Jackson County's oldest resident, Sam Olson, will be 96 Thursday.

He lives alone in a home he built for himself several years ago. It's adjacent to his workshop. He does all his own housework, including washing clothes and preparing meals except he does eat one meal a day at the local cafe.

He is a man of enduring energy and excellent health. He walks over town several times a day.

A veteran carpenter and wood craftsman, he still continues to work a little in his shop although his ability has decreased in the past few years.

He was born Dec. 3, 1888, in Pete Coulee to Mr. and Mrs. Thorvald Olson and was raised on the present Lyness Olson farm. He learned his carpenter skill as a young boy from his father. Sam built many of the homes in Taylor.

A sport he has always enjoyed and still does is fishing. He also enjoys going for automobile rides.

Those who have known Sam for years say he hasn't changed in appearance in 20 years.

San Francisco Movies Hurt By Labor Row

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Downtown merchants are feeling the pinch of a labor dispute that has kept two-thirds of San Francisco's movie houses closed for nearly three weeks.

Hard hit by the theater shut-down are restaurants and book-stores, cigar stands and taverns.

Merchants who depend on movie-goers for a healthy portion of their nocturnal trade report business dropoffs of up to 50 per cent.

The economic effects of the dispute can be seen most clearly on Market Street, the city's garish main drag where hot-dog stands and small shops nestle in the shadows of darkened theater marquees.

The throngs of people usually present on the street until the early hours have thinned visibly since the shutdown took effect Nov. 14.

Clarence F. Dolano, executive vice president of the Golden Gate Restaurant Association, which numbers most of the small Market Street restaurants among its members, estimates the strike has caused a 50 per cent dropoff in business.

"Our people are hurting, there's no doubt about it. When people don't come downtown to see the shows they just don't eat out."

Several store owners who used to stay open after midnight now are closing in mid-evening.

Natural Gas Sought for Iron Range

ST. PAUL (AP) — The State of Minnesota threw its weight Monday behind a proposal to supply natural gas to 17 Iron Range communities.

Atty. Gen. Walter Mondale, acting for Gov. Karl Rolvaag, filed a notice of intervention in favor of the gas plan before the Federal Power Commission.

The application was filed last April by Northern Natural Gas Co. If approved, it will provide natural gas to the communities and to taconite processing plants now operating and planned for the area.

Communities named in the application are Aurora, Biwabik, Bovey, Buhl, Calumet, Chisholm, Colesburg, Eveleth, Gilbert, Grand Rapids, Hoyt Lakes, Keewatin, Marble, Mountain Iron, Nashwauk, Hibbing and Virginia.

The notice filed Monday urges the FPC to make it possible to initiate natural gas service in 1965.

"The approval of this application is a vital step in the economic growth of northeastern Minnesota," said the governor in a statement.

He added that natural gas would make Minnesota taconite plants better able to compete with other domestic and foreign iron ore sources.

Czech Leader Meets With Soviet Heads

MOSCOW (AP) — Czech Communist leader Antonin Novotny met with the Kremlin's new leaders today for talks reportedly covering Czech economic reforms, Germany, the world Communist movement and the multilateral nuclear force proposed for the North Atlantic alliance.

SOMETHING TO LIVE BY

Best Things in Life Still Free

By BILL MERRILL

THE saying may be trite, but the fact remains, and it's true. Really it's true—"The best things in life are free." One of the very best is sitting on your shoulders, and I'd like to make some casual observations about it.

I heard recently of a man that developed the habit of greeting people by saying, "Well, hi, there, Bill, how's your old tomato?" He ran this one in the ground, but for our purpose, I'd like to suggest it points up that the old tomato, meaning the head, is a most important part of our anatomy, and for the most part, we take it for granted.

What amazes me is how well it is fortified against serious damage. Reach up right now and feel of the "old noggin," as we often carelessly refer to the head area. For all that it has soft coverings in the form of hair, more in some cases than in others, and skin in each case, it's basically a hard structure, protecting the gray matter which is, of course, the thinking mechanism and needs protection. As I announced, I wish to make some casual observations, not a scientific analysis of this bony, yet softly covered structure that we all received, in one form or another, at the onset of life.

WHILE WE ARE prone to protect these heads of ours from getting banged around, it seems inevitable that in the course of time, they take a beating, to say the least, and stand up under it relatively well. And why? Because, at no extra cost, the Creator provided reflexes, giving us the ability to duck, turn, or throw our arms up to protect the head. But if we still fail to save the head from a blow—that hard, bony structure will take quite a trouncing without permanent damage, and this is pretty wonderful too, considering it didn't cost us anything extra.

Now all of this had better be true, as I am working under the assumption that I am perfectly normal, and I can remember some horrible bumps that generated stars, so to speak, particularly during my youth. I believe the first blow I remember was when I was thrown from the back of my tricycle, and that one K.O'd me. I remember someone leading me across the street. Matter of fact, I think it was two people, but I can't be sure. I was put to bed, and I vaguely remember my dad buying me a little squirt gun that seemed to make the whole thing worthwhile.

THEN THERE was the time as a teen-ager, while ice skating, I suddenly found myself flat on the ice, having fallen backwards, and the only thing I remember hitting the ice was—you guessed it—my head. Now I'm not going to try and recall each and every blow I took, or I may even begin to question my equilibrium. Let it suffice to say that I'm thankful for a "bean" that's well fortified by nature, at no extra cost, or I could well have been a "has-been," if I may so jest.

And now a final observation. The best things in life are free, and in most cases, it begins with a well-organized anatomy, thanks to a wonderful Creator.

Bill Merrill's "Something to Live By" may be heard daily over KWNO at 6:50 a.m.

ALMA, Wis. (Special) — The combination of a walk-in safe at the Farmers Union office here was broken Saturday night or early Sunday morning. A little less than $100 was taken from the safe. The thieves also broke a soft drink machine and took the money in its cash box.

The break-in was reported to the sheriff's office by Ralph Polivka, who discovered the damage Sunday at 11 a.m. Deputy Sheriff Myron Hoch, Traffic Officer Henry Zeichert and Fred Glander Jr., Alma policeman, found prints in the building and the tracks of three men near the window to the restroom which they had broken to gain entry. The officers traced the footsteps to Alma Cemetery, about a block up the hill, where they apparently had parked their car.

No arrests have been made but investigation is continuing. Polivka said the damage to the safe is heavy.

State USWV Auxiliary Head Visits Winona Headquarters

Mrs. Treva Marks, Minneapolis, state president of the Auxiliary to the United Spanish War Veterans, was a guest of the Clarence Miller Auxiliary, USWV, at a dinner at Hotel Winona Monday. For the special occasion the tables were decorated with bronze and yellow flowers and bittersweet candies.

Mrs. Victor Miller, local president, presided. Mrs. Gus Seeling gave the invocation. During a business meeting, donations were given to the National Hiker Monument in Washington, D.C., and to the Winona Goodfellow. A gift was presented to Mrs. Marks from the group.

Mrs. Ralph Kohner, who was toastmistress, gave a brief patriotic talk. Mrs. Donald O'Dea, secretary-treasurer, reported on the payment of dues. Mrs. Kohner, who is a past state president, was appointed state press book chairman.

Names were drawn for the exchange of gifts at the Christmas party, which will be Dec. 21, at the home of Mrs. Robert Nelson.

Mrs. John Fromm's gift was won by Mrs. George Eggers Sr.

Junior Auxiliary Initiated by Unit Of Legion Auxiliary

LA CRESCENT, Minn. — Fifteen Junior Auxiliary members were initiated into the Gittens Leidel Unit 565, American Legion Auxiliary, by Mrs. Duane Bierbaum, Eyota, Minn., 1st District president.

The event took place in the Legion clubrooms during the regular Tuesday meeting of the unit. Mrs. Earl Gusa, Elgin, Minn., 1st District secretary, also was a guest. Following the initiation Mrs. Bierbaum spoke to the group on the programs of the auxiliary and the purposes of its constitution.

MRS. RAYMOND Reisdorf, rehabilitation chairman, said the gifts and money sent to the Veterans Hospital gift shop from the unit totaled $106.65 this year. Mrs. Arthur Jansen, Americanian chairman, reported that each school had received cake and coffee for teachers, and personnel from the auxiliary during American Education Week. She said the librarians of the schools had been notified the auxiliary would purchase a book of the school's choice also in observance of this week.

Mrs. Dallas Ames and Mrs. Robert Johnson volunteered to represent the unit at the first meeting of the La Crescent High School Booster Club Wednesday. Mrs. Ames and Mrs. Donald Pieper were named alternates to the fall conference.

Lunch was served by Mmes. George Kelly, Frank Wally and Howard Meisner.

Bus Company Criticized in Illinois Crash

WASHINGTON (AP) — An Interstate Commerce Commission report said Monday the owner of a bus involved in a fatal accident near Waukegan, Ill., in June was grossly negligent in operating the bus with four smooth rear tires.

Three passengers were killed and all 47 others in the bus, including the driver, were injured when the bus skidded out of control on a rain-soaked highway.

The bus was owned by Wisconsin Coach Line, Inc., Waukegan, Wis.

In the accident, on June 2, the bus struck the south end of the Des Plaines River bridge and overturned.

The report of an ICC investigation said the accident "resulted from the driver's loss of control of a fully loaded bus on wet pavement at highway speed . . . our investigation disclosed that the rear tires on the bus were devoid of any effective tread grooving or other configurations."

The report said the fact that the bus had operated 2,000 miles beyond its scheduled inspection, "emphasizes this degree of neglect."

Catholics Pray For Success Of Pope's Trip

VATICAN CITY (AP) — The world's half-billion Roman Catholics were asked today to pray for the success of Pope Paul VI's trip to India.

The Pope leaves before dawn Wednesday for the International Eucharistic Congress in Bombay. Plans were made for a special program of prayers in the Vatican and in Rome during the four days of his absence.

It will be the longest absence from Italy of any Pope since Pius VII returned in 1814 after five years in France as a prisoner of Napoleon.

The Vatican newspaper L'Osservatore Romano said Catholics everywhere were asked to pray that the Pope's mission to India may be realized.

The Eucharistic Congress is a gathering of Roman Catholic Church representatives from around the world. The Pope's trip is a personal gesture of friendship by its spiritual ruler to all the non-Christian peoples of Asia.

As such it underlines the modernization and renewal occupying the Church since the start of the Vatican Ecumenical Council two years ago.

The papal visit continued to generate controversy in predominantly Hindu India, where militant Hindus viewed it as the start of new Catholic conversion efforts.

Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri was asked in Parliament Monday if he was aware of reports that the Catholic Church would use the visit and the Eucharistic Congress to increase its Indian membership, now about 6.5 million.

The prime minister said he did not think the two events were intended to increase conversions and he hoped that would not be the result.

The Pope, in announcing the trip, said he was going to India as a pilgrim who wanted to meet the Indian people. Security problems presented by fanatic Hindus and their objections to plans for the pontiff to distribute gifts to the poor forced a revision of plans.

The latest official schedule for the Pope, issued Monday night in Bombay, drastically restricted his opportunities to rub shoulders with the Indian masses.

Schools May Lose Exclusive Rights To Income Taxes

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Members of the Minnesota School Boards Association have been warned that income tax revenues probably won't be considered primarily school monies much longer.

The idea that income tax funds should go solely for schools is the root of the debate over whether there is a deficit in the income tax school fund, said State Treasurer Val Bjornson.

The deficit does exist, according to Gov. Karl Rolvaag, who has ordered school aids trimmed 4 1/2 per cent. Bjornson and others have said there is enough money in various places to make ends meet.

Those claiming a deficit are talking about "a bookkeeping deficit in a rigidly earmarked fund," said Bjornson. "We were speaking two different languages."

Those who deal with state funds are increasingly thinking of school monies and the general revenue fund as one, Bjornson said.

Even more explicit was Rep. D. D. Wozniak of St. Paul. "School people can no longer indulge in the thought that income tax collections are their personal property," Wozniak said.

The school board group was expected today to endorse a resolution asking that state school aids be jacked up to pay 46 per cent of the local cost of educating pupils.

Wozniak agreed, calling higher school aids a method of "tax reform." Through such aids, he said, school districts collect $200 million which they do not have to raise by assessing local property.

Sen. Donald Wright, Minneapolis, said a sales tax was the most widely supported method of tax reform in hearings before his Interim Tax Commission this year. But Wright did not specifically support a sales tax.

Duluth and Superior Bus Drivers Strike

DULUTH, Minn. (AP) — City Bus drivers in Duluth and Superior, Wis., walked off their jobs early today in a dispute over a new work contract.

The walkout, coming in early morning hours, caught hundreds of riders by surprise. Many gathered at street corner bus stops only to learn from passing motorists that buses weren't running.

Many got lifts from motorists. Others walked in, snowy, but calm above weather.

The strike took effect about 4 a.m. after drivers, members of the Teamster Union, rejected an employer offer made by representatives of Duluth-Superior Transit Co.

The package offer rejected is reported to have called for a wage increase, pension benefits and a shorter work week. Drivers now get $2.39 an hour for 41 hours. About 118 of 139 bus company employees are involved in the walkout.

Normally about 16,000 persons ride buses daily in Duluth, but during the Christmas season the load usually reaches about 20,000, company officials said.

Crime Bureau Expansion Asked

ST. PAUL (AP) — The Minnesota Crime Bureau served notice Monday it will ask a 74 per cent budget increase and backed its request with figures showing the sharp rise of major crime in the state.

Major money requests will go toward building its staff from 31 to 53 persons and returning to full-time service, bureau officials said.

The Crime Bureau assists local police and sheriff's departments, circulates lists of wanted persons and details on crimes and in general coordinates investigations for local officers.

Its requests to Gov. Karl Rolvaag and the legislature is for $1,073,056 compared with the $616,227 it is operating in for the current biennium. In its report, the Crime Bureau said major crimes in Minnesota are running 22.5 per cent higher than a year ago.

Wisconsin Man, 70, Dead in Garage

BRISTON, Wis. (AP) — Ernest Krueger, 70, was found dead in his garage Monday night by Kenosha County deputies who said he was an apparent victim of asphyxiation.

The ignition on his car was turned on and the gasoline tank was empty.

Pope's Tiara Reaches U.S.

NEW YORK (AP) — Pope Paul VI has thanked Americans for 20 years of generosity to the poor by sending them the three-tiered ceremonial tiara he donated to the world's poor last month.

Francis Cardinal Spellman, archbishop of New York, displayed the jewel-studded, gold and silver domed crown at a gathering Monday of Roman Catholic clergy.

He said the pontiff entrusted him with the crown Nov. 18. "He wanted to express his gratitude for the goodness of all the people of America," the cardinal said.

U.S. Catholic relief services have distributed $1.3 billion in food, clothing and medicine in the last 20 years, a spokesman for the cardinal said.

The crown will be displayed soon at St. Patrick's Cathedral here. Later it will be shown at the Vatican Pavilion at the World's Fair and then sent on a nationwide tour. It is to be placed permanently in the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, D.C.

District GOP Head to Speak To College Groups

Outlook for the next four years will be the topic of a speech to college Republican groups this evening by Arthur Swan, Rochester, 1st District chairman.

Swan, an attorney, will address the College of Saint Teresa-St. Mary's College Young Republican Association at the SMC Cardinal Room. The meeting, open to all college students in the area, begins at 7:30 p.m.

Activities for the rest of the school year also will be planned. These include a trip to the state legislature and work on the platform for the Minnesota Federation of College Republican Clubs convention, to be held March 5 and 6. Also planned is a joint activity with GOP clubs at Winona State College and La Crosse State University.

Galesville Native Gets New Post With U.S. Steel

GALESVILLE, Wis. (Special) — Lloyd J. Severson, Galesville native, has been appointed director-international raw materials investigations of United States Steel Corp.

Severson will be based in Pittsburgh, Pa., moving there from Port Cartier, Quebec, Canada, where he has been president of Quebec Cartier Mining Co., a subsidiary of U.S. Steel.

In his new responsibility, Severson will investigate raw materials sources throughout the world, seeking new mineral deposits that warrant development. His broad background in this field, much of it in foreign areas, extends to 1936, when he was graduated from the University of Wisconsin after attending Winona State College. He was associated with the government's foreign economic administration from 1942 through 1944 in connection with strategic mineral supplies for World War II.

Mr. and Mrs. Severson have six children.

STORE FIRE . . . One of the more spectacular fires in Winona around the turn of the century was one that broke out in the White Store building on East 3rd Street. Firemen are seen here fighting the fire in the store which was just east of The Continental One-Price Clothing House, then in a building now occupied by St. Clairs, Inc., 65 E. 3rd St. The photograph was furnished by Mrs. Ralph Peterson, 619 Huff St.

Remember . . . When?

EARLY INDUSTRY . . . The Winona Willow Works was a thriving Winona industrial firm 75 years ago. Seen here as it looked in 1889, the plant on 56-58 E. 2nd St., used willows cut along the Wisconsin shoreline for weaving into lawn and porch furniture. The picture, the property of Irwin Anderson, shows the exterior of the building where some of the products were lined up on the sidewalk for display. Weaving of willow and ratan ware was done by hand and the company also dealt in such diverse items as baby carriages, express wagons and sleds.

LOGGING DAYS . . . Oxen were used to haul logs out of the woods during the booming lumbering days in the latter part of the last century. This photograph taken in 1887 shows a logging camp near Hayward, Wis., where teams of oxen were lined up prior to a day's work. Two of the men on the roof of the loghouse were uncles of Irwin Anderson, 177½ E. 3rd St., the owner of this photograph.

NFO National

Meeting Opening

Without Staley

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — The

National Farmers Organization convention opens Wednesday —

but NFO President Oren Lee

Staley will observe from a hospital bed.

Staley underwent an appendicitis operation Monday night, about 20 hours after entering the hospital for what he thought was the flu.

"He's in fine shape," said Erhard Pfingsten, NFO vice president and one of Staley's top lieutenants. Staley is from Rea,

Mo. NFO headquarters are at Corning, Iowa.

Pfingsten said a telephone hookup might be installed to permit Staley to address the delegates in the Minneapolis Auditorium.

Some 7,500 persons are expected for the sessions, which probably will deal mainly with the question of whether to resume the livestock holding action scheduled Oct. 1.

Staley has no opposition for another term as president. He has headed the NFO since it was organized a decade ago.

Minnesota is one of 23 states in which the NFO claims membership. There were some hesitant moves by Minnesota members against Staley's leadership earlier this year but these have largely died out.

The convention will conclude Thursday. Speakers will include Secretary of Agriculture

Orville Freeman.

Two-State Deaths

Mrs. Olena Granlund — Mrs. Olena Granlund, 87, died Monday at 3 a.m. at Jackson County Nursing Home, Black River Falls, where she had lived two years. She had been in failing health several months.

She was born Feb. 15, 1877, in the Town of Preston, Trempealeau County, to Ole and Kjestine Rissmoen Tormoen.

In April 1906 she was married to Peter Granlund. They farmed in the Town of Springfield many years, moving to Black River Falls some 20 years ago.

Survivors are: One son, Orin, Ranier, Ore.; one daughter, Mrs. William (Viola) Beltz, Camp Douglas; seven grandchildren; 14 great-grandchildren, and one niece, Mrs. Mathilda Thompson, Blair.

Funeral services will be Thursday at 2 p.m. at the Assembly of God Church, Black River Falls, the Rev. Gordon Johnson officiating. Burial will be in Trump Coulee Cemetery, near Taylor, Torgerson Funeral Home, Black River Falls, is in charge.

Two-State Funerals

Mrs. Louella Virgin — Funeral services for Mrs. Louella Virgin, 69, will be Wednesday at 2 p.m. at the Federal Church, Trempealeau, the Rev. George Anderson officiating. Burial will be in the Trempealeau Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Smith Mortuary, Galeville, today from 7 to 9 p.m. and after 12:30 p.m. Wednesday at the church.

Mrs. Virgin, the former Louella Nelson, was born Feb. 8, 1895, at Neillsville, Wis. She was married to Robert Virgin in 1921, and the couple lived in Trempealeau from 1930 on. Her husband died in 1957.

Survivors: A son, Wynn, Owatonna, Minn.; one brother, Albert Nelson, Abbotford, Wis., and two grandchildren.

Wesley R. Starks

CANTON, Minn. (Special) — Funeral services for Wesley R. Starks will be held Wednesday at 2 p.m. at the First Presbyterian Church, Canton, the Rev. James Beatty officiating. Burial will be in the Prosper Cemetery.

Pallbearers will be Robert McKay, Norman Elbertson, Clair Rongley, Pat Caldwell, Vernon Abrahamson and Hiram Danielson.

Another Boat

Heads Upriver

Another towboat was pushing upriver from Winona today, but with the milder weather the chances of it's getting stuck upstream for the winter were slight.

Three inches of ice were measured in the pool Monday. That's not too much of a barrier for the powerful towboats, particularly with a barge or two out front; but in the sub-zero cold of Sunday night ice was forming. Now, with milder weather, it's doubtful that ice is forming very fast.

At any rate, the L. Wade Childress locked through the Winona dam at 12:30 p.m. today. Running light, it's headed for St. Paul to pick up loaded barges.

Also upstream to pick up loaded grain barges is the George W. Banta, which locked through at 11 a.m. and moved along fairly well.

It passed Wabasha Monday afternoon.

The C. R. Clements, however, didn't do so well. Just below the interstate bridge at Wabasha it became immobilized in the ice field Monday night. The crew freed two barges, took them to Alma, returned, tied into the two others and headed downstream again about 4 a.m.

The Lady Marjorie, with two barges, also came downstream overnight, apparently without difficulty. It locked through Wabasha at 7:35 a.m.

Down in St. Louis, Mo., today the Bull Durham was scheduled to load three oil barges for a trip to Winona. Whether it will take off remained to be seen.

Thefts Investigated

Police Chief James W. McCabe reported two minor thefts in the city Monday night. Robert Spaulding, 609 E. Snuborn St., reported last night that a pair of rubber overshoes had been stolen from him while he ice-skated at the East End Recreation Center between 7 and 9 p.m. The boots were valued at $4.50. LET'S TALK SPORTS with Gary Evans

AT THE EXPENSE OF GETTING in trouble with outdoorsman Lefty Hymes, we'd like to pass along some helpful advice to those of you who participate in the sport of ice fishing.

Watching Los Angeles Rams defensive end Lamar Lundy dress before the game with the Vikings at Metropolitan Stadium Sunday had to be one of the most amazing things his teammates had witnessed.

With temperatures hovering between zero and five above, Lundy wasn't going to be caught with cold toes. He solved his problem this way.

He first smeared petroleum jelly on his toes. Next he pulled on a pair of wool athletic socks. Then he wrapped his feet in a plastic wrap used by housewives to keep leftovers.

Then another pair of wool socks went on before he stuffed his enlarged pinkies into his size 13 football shoes.

Did any of his teammates laugh?

"When a man is taking steps to preserve his life under these conditions, who laughs?" said mate Roosevelt Grier.

The remedy worked. Lundy reported his toes warm as toast.

OUR APOLOGIES TO GALE-ETTRICK'S 160-pound defensive back John Scarseth.

John, a senior, was named to the all-Coulee Conference team which was publicized in the Sunday News. Everything was all right, except we missed on our picture count by one and someone had to go.

Since John's picture was one of the last ones made, the composing room boys left him out.

It wasn't an intentional mistake. But to correct everything just glance to the left side of this column and you'll see John's smiling face.

SOMEONE ELSE OVERLOOKED is Winona High's 147-pound guard Larry Pomeroy.

Pomeroy, who will graduate this year, was named to the Nov. 5 team-of-the-week by a Twin Cities radio station.

He was honored for his work in Winona High's 7-6 loss to Austin six days previous.

It could be an all-star year for the stocky athlete as he reached the Rochester Invitational Tournament finals in wrestling at 138 before losing Saturday.

THE SWAMI IS BACK again after running his totals to 53 of 79 without handicaps for a .671 percentage. With handicaps he has hit 50 of 79 correctly for .633.

Warriors in 84-79 Loss to River Falls

By ROLLIE WUSSOW Daily News Sports Writer

Victory No. 1 once again eluded the grasp of the Winona State College basketball team at Memorial Hall Monday night.

River Falls State became the third straight Wisconsin University Conference member to add a victory over the Warriors. The scrappy and gun happy Falcons built up a huge first half lead, then stayed even in the second stanza to win 84-79.

Once again, it was those ever-present variables — lack of height and one bad half — that prevented the Warriors from winning.

Winona State sputtered and smoked for the first half of play, found itself trailing 41-28 at the break and then came out and manhandled the Falcons in the second period, outscoring the visitors 51-43. But to no avail.

COACH BOB Campbell's team, now 0-3 on the year, let ten minutes elapse in the second period before putting on a fast moving floor show, which resulted in four players fouling out in addition to putting points on the scoreboard (we'd say scorebook, but it was out of order the entire game).

Shortly after the ten-minute mark, captain Dave Goede, Tom Stallings, Gary Peterson, Jack Kelly and Tim Anderson decided it was time to make a move, after trailing at the moment by ten points 59-49.

Stallings popped a quick jump shot from the side on a fast break, Kelly, filling in for the injured Dave Meisner, who didn't suit up due to an infected blister on his foot, barreled in on the business end of a fast break, scoring, drawing and sinking a foul shot to make the score 59-54.

Falcon playmaker Ken Lee, a product of Durand High School, dropped a foul shot to put the visitors up by six, and Goede flipped in an underhand scoop shot to cut the margin to four.

THE MARGIN remained at four to six points until, with less than five minutes left, the Winona bench was called for a technical. Lee, acting as captain, calmly meshed in three free tosses, one on the bench call, another two on a foul by Keith Asleson. After getting the ball out of bounds, Joe McAbee, one of eight freshmen on Don Page's roster, scored from underneath, pushing the lead to ten points to quiet down the nearly-filled Warrior gym.

Goede and crew went to work right away, with Asleson scoring on a jumper. Goede on a drive and Peterson from underneath. McAbee scored once again before Goere hit a pair of free throws, snipping the lead to four points again.

Stallings and Kelly, after seeing the Warriors behind 80-73 with less than two minutes remaining, meshed a pair of foul shots each, cutting the deficit to three. The Falcons then capitalized on more Warrior fouls, sinking four more points. That proved enough. Asleson sank a jumper shortly before the gun.

FOULS WERE the third nemesis to Campbell Monday. The Warriors chopped their way through the first half, getting all four of the aforementioned men in trouble. Stallings, Kelly, Goede and Peterson were each fouled out.

Badgers Open With Houston

MADISON, Wis. — The Wisconsin basketball team, which hit bottom in a rebuilding campaign in 1963, launches Coach Johnny Erickson's "year of progress" tonight in a meeting with the Houston Cougars.

Starting his sixth season as coach, Erickson hopes that the 1964-65 campaign will signal a return to court respectability for the Badgers, who dropped to an 8-16 record last year and finished last in the Big Ten with a 2-12 mark.

Although he prefers a fast break offense, Erickson has discarded race-horse tactics to take full advantage of his available talent. The Badgers have added height and reserve strength, but are slower than last year.

Wisconsin plans to start 6-foot-6 Mark Zubor and 6-foot-5 Dave Roberts, both juniors, with 6-foot-8 sophomore Keith Steller up front. Senior Jim Bohlen will open in the back-

PLAY AT STOUT STATE TONIGHT

Wiltgen to Get Look at Redmen

Coach Ken Wiltgen gets an overdue look at his St. Mary's College basketball team tonight. The Redmen travel to Menomonie, Wis., to tackle Stout State University in a non-conference test.

"It's the same old story," said Wiltgen. "We need a game. We were ready to go a week ago."

Wiltgen has his starting lineup set to go for the clash with the Blue Devils.

George Hoder, 6-4 sophomore, gets the nod at center with George Valaika, 6-4 senior, and Roger Pytlewski, 6-5 junior, at forwards and Jerry Sausser, 6-1 sophomore, and Mike Maloney, 6-4 senior, at guards.

Maloney led the team in scoring with a 13.3 average last year as the Redmen swept through 17 of 26 tests and finished 9-7 in the Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference.

Pytlewski also averaged in double figures, hitting at a 10.9 clip.

Wiltgen also has been pleased with the play of 6-1 sophomore guard — forward Jim Buffo.

'Bama Picked College King

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A Alabama's all-conquering Crimson Tide was named the national collegiate football champion today, edging out unbeaten Arkansas by a paper-thin margin in the balloting by a nationwide panel of sports writers and broadcasters.

Mighty 'Bama, which was supposed to be in a building year, gained 34 1/2 first-place votes and 515 1/2 points on the basis of 10 points for a first-place vote, nine for second, eight for third and so on.

Arkansas received 11 1/2 first-place votes and 486 1/2 points — it was second on practically all the other ballots — with one selector splitting his first-place vote between the two contenders on this last of the weekly Associated Press polls.

Notre Dame, the leader for the last few weeks and deprived of a storybook finish by last week's 20-17 upset by Southern California, was third with 442 points and six first-place votes. Big Ten champion and Rose Bowl-bound Michigan got the other three first-place votes and finished in fourth place with 400 points.

Paul (Bear) Bryant, the Alabama coach, had maintained all

"He's good enough to start right now," said Wiltgen. "But he is such a darn good 'fireman' that we'll keep him on the bench at first. He plays both guard and forward and he'll definitely be in there somewhere."

Wiltgen also expects Dennis Ludden, 6-0 sophomore guard, to see action.

"After that it gets pretty thin," summed up the coach. "We've got Murphy (Jim, 6-4 sophomore forward) and that's about it."

A year ago the Redmen manhandled Stout 78-53, but that score is giving Wiltgen little cause for joy this campaign.

"I really don't know anything about them," he said. "I do know they had mostly freshmen last year. They came along real well at the end of the year, so I'm not expecting an easy go of it tonight. They go 6-6 at center, 6-4 and 6-3 at the forwards and 6-2 and 5-11 at guards."

St. Mary's will go with its single-post form of attack.

"We'll try and run," said

Gophers Start Season Of Top Hopes Tonight

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Minnesota launches a season of high hopes tonight, heading the first big night of the collegiate basketball season.

Ten other games involving state college teams are on tap, with eight of the nine Minnesota Intercollegiate Conference schools in action for the first time.

The Gophers take on South Dakota State at 8 p.m. in Williams Arena in Minneapolis in what should provide Coach John Kundla with an opportunity to take a long look at his reserves.

The visiting Jackrabbits are faced with a rebuilding year after reaching the pinnacle of small college basketball two years ago. South Dakota State won the NCAA college division championship in 1963, and made the NCAA tourney in 1961 as well.

But Coach Jim Iverson lost all of his starters of a year ago, and doesn't appear to have the experience, speed or talent to keep up with the Gophers — who have hopes to challenging top-ranked Michigan for the Big Ten championship.

Kundla plans to start 6-foot-6 junior Dennis Dvoracek at forward in place of scoring ace Lou Hudson to give the Eau Claire, Wis., product some early seasoning.

Four other Gopher starters will be veterans from last season when Minnesota was 17-7. They are Terry Kunze, 6-4 senior, at the other forward; Mel Northway, 6-8 senior, at center, and speedsters Archie Clark, 6-1 junior, and Don Yates, 6-3 junior, at guards.

Also due extensive action are sophomore Paul Presthus, 6-5 from Rugby, N.D., Wes Martins, 5-11 junior guard from Moorhead, and Dave Nelson, 6-1 senior guard from Minneapolis.

Probable South Dakota State starters are Dave Fischer, 6-5 senior, and Bill Iverson, 6-3 junior, at forwards; Ron Otterness, 6-7 sophomore, at center, and Maurice White, 6-2 junior, and Gary Smith, 6-1 junior, at guards.

Elsewhere tonight, MIA teams making their debuts are Concordia at Moorhead State, Wheaton at Augsburg, Gustavus Adolphus at Wartburg, Iowa, Valley City at Hamline, Macalester at St. Olaf, St. Mary's at St. John's, St. John's at Carleton and St. Thomas at Marquette. Duluth opens Wednesday night at Superior, Wis.

Other games tonight have Augustana, S.D., at Minnesota-Morris and Luther of Iowa versus Bethel at St. Paul.

Big Ten openers tonight include South Dakota University at Iowa, and Houston at Wisconsin.

In Monday night action, St. Cloud State reeled off its fifth straight victory of the young season, belting Huron, S.D., College 82-67. River Falls, Wis., State trimmed Winona State 84-79. Mike Forrest paced St. Cloud with 28 points, while Gary Petersen was high for Winona with 23.

St. Norbert Lad Only Badger Named

NEW YORK (AP) — Defensive end Dave Jaquet of St. Norbert was the only Wisconsin player named Monday to the two platoon Little All-American football team announced by The Associated Press.

Eau Claire quarterback Jim Van Gorden, who led NAIA colleges in total offense, received honorable mention.

ROCHESTER WINS

ROCHESTER, Minn. — Rochester of the Big Nine Conference scored a 75-61 triumph over Minneapolis West here Monday night. The game was a makeup of the postponed Friday game.

Cierzan Smashes 679 Set To Take Over Third Place

John Cierzan, shooting as briskly as the temperatures, soared into third place in the top ten series standings in the city Monday night.

Rolling for Ahrens-Platt Oil Co. in the Monday League at Winona Athletic Club, Cierzan spanked 679 to roll into the third spot.

THE ONLY two three-game sets above him are a 704 posted by Dick Niemeyer Sept. 24 and a 694 rapped by Walter Williams Nov. 23.

"Thinking back this morning, Cierzan recalled a balky 10 pin that might have meant the difference between a 600 and a national honor count.

"I started with a double in my last game and then lost the 10 pin in the third frame," he said. "After that I had three more strikes so I could have started with six.

"All-in-all, it was a good night," he mused. "I'm just happy to have the 679."

THE SERIES marked a career high for Cierzan, a parts man at Warner & Swasey, and came on games of 246, 209 and 224.

He went into league action Monday carrying a 184 average.

The individual effort carried his team to 2,806 with First National Bank coming up with 1,040.

While Cierzan was lacing his third-place total at Winona Athletic Club, Clarence Rivers of Linahan's rattled 234-629 in the City League at Hal-Rod.

JOE PAGE tied the single game total to lead his Bunke's APCO team to 1,045. KWN0 ripped 2,912 and Irv Praxel 528 errorless.

In the VFW League at Hal-Rod, Chuck Hagedorn totaled 603 for Bub's and Ralph Bam-benek 602 for Wason's Supper Club. Chris Wiefenbach's 566 errorless led Blanches Tavern to 982-2,857 and Dick Seeling tripped 245 for Bunke's APCO.

THE PIN TOPPLERS League at Westgate saw Doris Bay of Lincoln Insurance shove her team to 947-2,657 with 226-567, all the totals just a bit off the top ten pacesetters.

Other keglers also had top nights in the league. Marge Moravec belted 200-536, Isabelle Rozek 206-555, Leona Lubinski 553, Irene Bronk 551, Vivian H. Brown 529, Orlane Kittle 525, Irene Gostomski 525, Louise Livingston 503 and Betty Schoon-over 501.

WESTGATE BOWL: Ladies—Esther Kelm ripped 207-544 to trigger Grukowski Beauty Shop to 894-2,578. Eleanor Loshok registered 203-521.

Community — Bob Schossow leveled 223-577 for Schmidt's and Oasis 1,000-2,883.

Alley Gaters — Williams Hotel picked up 928-2,603 with Nettie Haase dropping 214-504 for Wards and Janice Drazkowski 512 for Mohan's. Fran Rivers belted 205.

HAL-ROD LANES: Park-Rec Junior Girls — Carol Lilla of All-Stars tripped 156-280 with Roadriders cruising to 744-1,371.

RED MEN'S CLUB: Monday-night — Sunbeam took team honors with 906-2,637, but Schmidt's also hooked 2,637. Schmidt's got 181 from Richard Shinnick and Steve Belisle recorded a like figure for Bub's. Lloyd Fegre of Doerer's slammed 474.

WINONA AC: Go-Getters — Orville Ciesewski hammered 205-471 for E.B.'s Corner. Circle G Ranch bagged 854 and Kram-plumberettes 2,412.

Rose Bowl Fever Is Overcome

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Rose Bowl fever gives way to hoop-la on the Michigan and Oregon State campuses tonight when the Wolverines, early favorites to succeed UCLA as the nation's No. 1 college basketball team, entertain little Ball State and the Beavers, under new coach Paul Valenti, meet highly rated San Francisco in key season openers.

More than 50 major games are scheduled on the campaign's formal opening date. Michigan and Oregon State, whose football teams meet at Pasadena, Calif., New Year's Day, share the spotlight with Southern powers Duke and Davidson.

Michigan will field a veteran team, led by Bill Buntin and Cazzie Russell, which narrowly outpointed UCLA's defending champions in The Associated Press pre-season poll of sports-writers and broadcasters.

Following their opener against Ball State, the Wolverines face a major test at Duke Friday night. The Blue Devils, No. 5 in The AP poll, beat Michigan in the NCAA semifinals last March.

San Francisco, No. 9 in the pre-season balloting, meets an Oregon State club rebuilding after the loss of 7-foot Olympian Mel Counts. Valenti replaces Slats Gill as the Beavers' pilot.

Fourth-ranked Davidson and fifth-ranked Duke open tonight against Wake Forest and Virginia Tech, respectively. Other major powers in action include Minnesota vs. South Dakota State; North Carolina vs. Clemson; Bradley vs. Northern Michigan; Kansas vs. Arkansas; St. Louis vs. North Dakota and Notre Dame vs. Lewis.

UCLA, which has lost All-America Walt Hazzard but retains sharpshooting Gail Goodrich, puts its 30-game winning streak on the line Friday night at Illinois. Third-ranked Wichita opens Saturday against Long Beach, Calif. State.

Vanderbilt, No. 6, breaks in against Rice Thursday. Syracuse and Vanderbilt, Nos. 7 and 8, have Wednesday dates with American University and Creighton, respectively, and St. John's, N.Y., No. 10, opens against Temple Saturday.

The Winona State freshman cage squad opened its season with an 86-74 loss to the La Crosse State University freshmen team in a preliminary to the varsity tilt Monday night.

The Warrior yearlings, coached by Dick Papenfuss and Dick Martzke, trailed 38-34 at the half.

Jack Benedict, from Kenosha, Wis., netted 24 points for Winona, while Dwayne Davis had 20. Rick Auseth of Trempealeau, Wis., got 11.

Lee Mitich had 16 for La Crosse while Dick Martin and Larry Thirion totaled 14 each.

OPENINGS FOR WOMEN'S MEET

Esther Pozanc, who is handling entries for the Winona teams planning to attend the Women's State Bowling Tournament to be held in Rochester next year, has openings for three teams with 37 already signed.

All the teams will bowl March 27 with the openings left on the 1:30 p.m. shift. Anyone interested is asked to call Esther by Dec. 10.

Marquette to Open Against Toms Tonight

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Marquette's basketball Warriors, hopeful of rebounding from a disastrous 1963-64 season, launch a 26-game schedule under new coach Al McGuire tonight in a meeting with St. Thomas of St. Paul, Minn., at the Arena.

Lacking tremendous height while facing a rugged schedule, McGuire has installed a new style of play. He is trying to slow down the Warriors, who tried to cut-run foes under former coach Eddie Hickey.

The Warriors have five players back from last year's team, which posted a 5-21 record while losing more games than any other Marquette squad. Marquette also set a school mark by losing 15 straight last season.

In addition, the Warriors will be out to show home fans that their stunning 70-66 upset by the talented freshman team was a fluke. Many of the varsity players still are smarting from the defeat at the hands of freshmen recruited by McGuire and his aides.

"Our boys are straining at the bit to go," McGuire said. "They're anxious to redeem themselves for that loss to our freshmen and I think we should beat St. Thomas."

Junior (Tom) Flynn, who led the Warriors in scoring and rebounding last season, will start up front with 6-foot-6 Paul Carbins and either 6-foot-5 Marty Holmes or 6-foot-5 Joel Plinska. Sophomores Bob Wolf and Dane Mathews are due to open in the backcourt.

St. Thomas, which staggered to a 9-16 record last season, has eight lettermen back. However, the Tommies are counting heavily on a pair of sophomores, 6-foot-9 Dan Hansard, a center, and Nick Lapentti, a 6-foot guard.

Rounding out the St. Thomas starting five will be Wayne Pier and Tom Raih, both 6-feet-4, and 5-foot-10 Fred Korba.

NEW YORK (AP) — Floyd Patterson still nurses an ambition to beat Sonny Liston in a heavyweight title fight.

Patterson would have to cash in a wild parlay to make it come true since neither he nor Liston is champion.

The former two-time heavy-weight ruler has it all figured out.

All he has to do is beat Charlie Powell in San Juan, P.R., Dec. 12; beat Canadian George Chuvalo in Madison Square Garden, Jan. 29; then get a fight with Cassius Clay, if the loud one still has some piece of the championship, and win that one, too.

Then, presto, in again with Liston to gain vengeance for his two first-round knockouts by Sonny.

Phillies Leading Dealers, Even Want Bo Belinsky

HOUSTON (AP) — The Philadelphia Phillies have become the leading volume dealers at the winter baseball meetings but their manager says he's still not satisfied. He wants another pitcher and he'd settle for Bo Belinsky.

Belinsky's desire to get away from the Los Angeles Angels is exceeded only by their urge to unload him. Angel General Manager Fred Haney says there has been a lot of interest in the controversial left-hander, but not being a banker, Haney is not particularly interested in interest.

"They haven't come up with what we want," he said. "I haven't been able to find out what the Angels want for Belinsky," said Philadelphia Manager Gene Mauch. "But I want him."

The Phillies, shaking off the shock of their recent stretch dive, pulled the first inter-league trade of the year Sunday, acquiring first baseman Dick Stuart from the Boston Red Sox for pitcher Dennis Bennett. Then, on Monday, Philadelphia traded outfielder Danny Cater to the Chicago White Sox for veteran pitcher Ray Herbert.

In yet another deal, the Phils sold journeyman first-baseman Vic Power back to the Angels, from whom he was acquired late last season. The price was about $20,000.

Earlier in the day the Washington Senators purchased catcher Doug Camilli from the Los Angeles Dodgers for about the same price.

The Senators then consummated a late-evening transaction by trading outfielder Chuck Hinton to the Cleveland Indians for first-baseman Bob Chance and infielder-outfielder Woody Held.

The 28-year-old Hinton, a right-handed hitter, batted .274 in 138 games for Washington this past season. He had 11 homers and batted in 153 runs.

Chance, 24, in his first full season with the Indians, hit .270 in 120 games. A southpaw swinger, he had 14 homers and drove in 35 runs in 1964. Held, a 32-year-old utilityman, batted .236 with 49 RBI in 118 games.

Herbert, who will be 35 Dec. 15, had a 20-9 record in 1962 and was the winning pitcher in the second All-Star game that year.

Goede and Dave Rosenu all fouled out for Winona, which wound up with 31 fouls. River Falls took advantage of the whistle toons, sinking 28 of 50 attempts. Winona had 19 of 30, but had the field goal advantage, 30 to 28.

Petersen finished with 23 points for Winona, most of them methodical. Kelly had 16. Asleson, one of the few bright spots Monday, had 13. Stallings 14 and Goede ten.

Lee paced River Falls with 21, while Jim Bloomquist got 17. Bob Pritchard 14, Nate Schilling 12 and Paul Kramer 11.

THERE WILL be no respite for the Warriors as far as trying to get away from Wisconsin college outposts is concerned. Campbell's crew will travel to the university site at Platteville next Monday for their next test. Loras of Iowa will play at Memorial Hall next Wednesday.

SHORT SHOTS... Peterson severely re-injured his left knee Monday night, the one which had plagued him for the two previous games... Paul Kulig, a freshman from Independence, played briefly for River Falls, but didn't score... Tom Vail, last year's head freshman coach at Winona State, was in the crowd... He is an assistant at Platteville now, the Warriors' Monday opponent.

Kremer on 2nd Defensive Team

Winona State's 160-pound co-captain and linebacker was named to the Associated Press Little College All-America second defensive team as a halfback today.

Kremer, also named to the Northern Intercollegiate All-Conference team, led the Warriors to an NIC championship and a 6-1 record this season.

Named to the second offensive team were fullback Dave Heide of Concordia, Minn., and guard Robert Sundberg of Minot, N.D. State.

Jerry Jacobs of North Dakota is a tackle on the second defensive team.

Given honorable mention were fullback Rich Froehle of St. John's, Minn.; halfback Roger Heikings of Yankton, S.D.; quarterback Jim Van Gorden of Eau Claire, Wis.; State; ends Ken Hogenson of Morningside and Ed Maras of South Dakota State, and guard-linebacker Phil Minnick of State College of Iowa.

Butkus to NFL, Namath to AFL?

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Illinois linebacker Dick Butkus apparently is leaning heavily toward the National Football League but the rival American League is leaning on Alabama quarterback Joe Namath.

The lure for Namath may be a salary-bonus package in the neighborhood of $150,000 and the possibility he might step in quicker as a first-string quarterback in the AFL.

Namath was made the No. 1 pick of the New York Jets in the AFL, and the St. Louis Cardinals in the NFL. The Cardinals, however, have one of the best young quarterbacks in the league, Charley Johnson. The Jets have Dick Wood, an inconsistent performer. Weeb Ewbank, coach of the Jets, said Monday that Namath has "the potential of being another Johnny Unitas."

Ewbank should know. He unveiled Unitas at Baltimore. "We want this boy real bad," said Jets owner Sonny Werblin. "And we plan to get him."

Butkus, meanwhile, said "I think I'll go with the Bears. I'll probably sign sometime during the week. I am confident of playing pro although I know I will have trouble. I hope Bill George sticks around for a few more years. I wouldn't mind playing behind him."

Butkus was the No. 1 pick of Chicago and taken in the AFL on the second round by the Denver Broncos.

The AFL defeated the NFL 8-1 in signings Monday with the Buffalo Bills getting the big jump by signing five, including their No. 3 pick, Villanova tackle Al Atkinson.
